

Machete

2018 CALIFORNIA, RED WINE

Empowerment and agency are at the heart of Machete. A heroine does what a heroine wants, and in this case, the wine follows suit. It speaks for itself and deflects the negativity. We wanted Machete to stand on its own in order to showcase and elevate Petite Sirah from its status as a blending tool. Composed of Petite Sirah, Syrah and Grenache, the wine has been sourced primarily from unparalleled sites such as Stagecoach, Snows Lake, Zaca Mesa, Dark Horse, Bavarian Lion and Summerwind vineyards.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

A gothic mauve with a vivid neon rim, the wine appears almost black in the glass. Notes of wet stone, black plum and crushed gravel reverberate from within. Bold upfront, the palate is all-enveloping with mixed berry crepe, black licorice and a touch of char. Layered and omnipotent in weight, the wine finishes with ripe Petite Sirah tannins, providing a pleasant closing texture.
